Cherry Stall Salesperson

Cromwell, Otago

$24.50 per hour

Fixed term 15th Dec to 15th January, part time 10 to 24hrs per week

We are on the hunt for an enthusiastic legend too look after our cherry stall this summer.

We provide Cromwell locals with the opportunity to buy our delicious locally grown cherries directly from our orchards. To do this, we set up easy-access stalls where people can pop in and grab a bag (Cromwell township).

The stalls will start operating around 15th December 2023 through to mid-January. There is some flexibility, but you will need to be available for peak selling times with a mid-morning start, must be available for weekends.

We will need you to be comfortable:

- Collecting sales stock for the day and preparing it by sorting, weighing and bagging the cherries.
- Setting up and packing down your trestle table and umbrella at the licensed spot in town.
- Lifting 15kg crates of cherries
- Arranging your stall and signage in a visually attractive way.
- Processing cash and EFTPOS transactions.
- Accurately recording stock and sales for the day.

What we need from you:

- A positive, welcoming attitude with our customers
- Fluent conversational English
- Driver's license and access to transport
- Confidence and trustworthiness in cash handling

This is the perfect summer job to earn some extra cash over the holidays and enjoy all that Central Otago has to offer in your free time.
